Press night: 9 Dec at 7pm

Today Rose Theatre Kingston announces the casting for its Christmas production of Kenneth Grahame's classic story The Wind in the Willows. Following the huge success of last year's festive hit A Christmas Carol and 2014's The Lion The Witch and the Wardrobe, Ciaran McConville directs a cast of young local actors from the Rose Youth Theatre led by a team of professional actors including Jamie Baughan (Toad), Joy Brook (Otter/Mrs Badger/Aunty), Derek Elroy (Badger), Gary Mitchinson (Mole), Emma Pallant (Ratty) and Michael Taibi (Stoat/Timothy). The production opens on 9 December, with previews from 6 Dec, and runs until 3 Jan.

When Mole abandons his spring cleaning in search of adventure, little does he expect to be scooped-up by Ratty, Badger and the irrepressible Toad.

From summer-days messing about in boats, to an automobile addiction and an evil invasion from the Wild Woods, Mole finds himself hurtling towards the historic Battle for Toad Hall.

A story of friendship and courage, The Wind in the Willows is one of the best loved books of all time, now brought to the stage in a glittering new production that promises festive madness for all ages and an enchanting ode to the wild banks of the River Thames.

Following on from the success of last year's charity collections, this Christmas we will once again be collecting for four local charities. These are Surrey Wildlife Trust, who manages almost 8,000 hectares of land in Surrey and has transformed the fortunes of some of Surrey's most threatened species; Refugee Action Kingston, supporting, advising and empowering refugees and asylum seekers towards building fulfilled and independent lives; Joel Community Services, providing food, friendship and shelter to people suffering homelessness; and, being a charity ourselves, the Rose's learning and participation programme, aiming to inspire young people and adults alike through the power of theatre and provide creative opportunities for all.
